

Daniel A. Molina
CenterGrid

Dan Molina serves as the President and Chief Executive Officer of CenterGrid, a Cloud Solutions company in Hamilton, Ohio.

Prior to assuming leadership of CenterGrid, Dan served in a variety of roles over his nearly 20-year career at Accenture, including as the North America Go-To-Market Lead for VMware, as the Accenture Operations Local Market Lead for Ohio & Kentucky, as a Global Capability Lead, as a Global Enterprise Architect, as a North America Sales Lead in Infrastructure Outsourcing, as a Service Management Architect and Integration Architecture Designer/Developer.

Prior to joining Accenture, Dan was a Graduate Research Assistant at the Kettering Foundation where he focused on finance and leadership. He also conducted award-winning research on “Valuing Diversity” as part of his graduate studies.

Dan serves as the Vice Chair of the Cincinnati Youth Collaborative and as a Trustee and Vice Chair of Governance for Bethesda Inc. He was selected for Class 34 of the Cincinnati USA Regional Chamber of Commerce’s Leadership Cincinnati program (and subsequently sat on the steering committee for Class 35, 36 and 37) as well as their Leadership Exchange to St. Louis / Austin / Atlanta / Nashville. Dan was a Hispanic IT Executive Council (HITEC) Rising Star and graduated from their Emerging Executive Program. Hispanic Career World magazine featured Dan in an article about innovation and diversity and he was also selected as a two-time Regional Finalist for the White House Fellowship. Dan serves as an advisor to US Senator, Rob Portman (Ohio) and was recently reappointed by Governor John Kasich (and confirmed by the Ohio Senate) to serve as a state commissioner on the Ohio Commission on Hispanic-Latino Affairs.

Dan earned a Bachelor of Science in Business Administration and a Masters of Business Administration at the University of Dayton. He is married with three children and lives in Cincinnati.