

Tony Ortiz

Tony Ortiz is the Diversity Liaison to Attorney General Mike DeWine and the Office of the Attorney General. He splits his time at the Ohio Peace Officer Training Academy (OPOTA) and in community outreach. He also Chairs the Ohio Governors Commission on Hispanic/Latino Affairs. He retired as the Associate Vice President for Latino Affairs at Wright State University in December 2016 after 32 years and was granted Senior Lecturer Emeritus in 2017. He created the Sports Medicine program while at Wright State University with numerous graduates working all over the world. He was inducted into the Ohio Athletic Trainers Hall of Fame in 2002. He retired with 38 total years of teaching and service. He also is President of the Board of El Puente a program he created in 2007, and a board member of many other community agencies.

A native of Lorain, Ohio, Ortiz obtained his bachelor degree in Education and Athletic Training from Bowling Green State University (BGSU) and his master's in Education from BGSU.

Ortiz resides in Beavercreek.