

October 21, 2016 - University of Cincinnati

The Ohio Latino Affairs Commission is proud to partner with the University of Cincinnati to host the first-ever Ohio Latino Student Summit. Unlike OCHLA's annual Latino Education Summit, the Latino Student Summit is geared toward high school and college students and will focus on leadership development.

We are calling for proposals designed to advance and support the Latino/Hispanic student experience.

Topics can include, but not limited to any of the following:

- Creating, maintaining, and assessing Latino student programs
- Research regarding Latino identity, student success, recruitment and retention etc...
- Building your leadership team
- Combating micro aggressions, marginalization, and understanding intersectionality
- Resources and support for undocumented/DACA students

- Civic responsibility and community engagement
- Cultivating mentorship programs and embracing the Latino culture
- How to assess the needs of Latino/Hispanic students for intentional programming

The proposal window has been extended to September 12, 2016.
