

Irene Cihon Dietz, MD is currently an Assistant Professor of Pediatrics at Case Western Reserve University and the Director of the Comprehensive Care Program at MetroHealth Medical Center, Cleveland, a now 55 plus year old program, which was recognized as an NCQA level III Physician Centered Primary Care Medical Home since 2011. Dr. Dietz did her medical training at the University of Cincinnati, School of Medicine, followed by a Pediatric Residency at Cincinnati Children's Hospital Medical Center. Dr. Dietz holds specialty board certification in, Developmental and Behavioral Pediatrics, Neurodevelopmental Disabilities, and Hospice and Palliative Care Medicine. Special interests include the primary care, specialty care, and outcomes for people with autism, intellectual and developmental disabilities, spina bifida and hydrocephalus, cerebral palsy, and technology dependence.

Dr. Dietz is an appointed Member of the Fresh Air Camp Board of Director since 2003, and a newly appointed member to The ARC Board. Both of these groups serve people with childhood onset chronic medical needs. Dr. Dietz has been Past President of the Complex Care Committee and as such would like to serve a total of 5 years with current plan to serve on Advisory Committee with immediate past president and president elect as well.