

Ohio Hispanic Legislative Day 2014

“Hispanics in Ohio, an Emerging Engine for the Future”

Presenters

Martin D. Golden is the Columbus District Director for the U.S. Small Business Administration. As District Director, he is responsible for the delivery of all SBA programs and services in the central and southern portion of the state as well as coordination between the SBA, the district’s Small Business Development Centers, SCORE chapters, and the Women’s Business Center. Programs and services delivered by the SBA include the loan guaranty program, which is delivered through more than 140 eligible lenders, assistance in government contracting and exporting, and training. Mr. Golden served on both active duty and as a reservist in the United States Navy as an Intelligence Officer. Mr. Golden holds a Bachelor of Arts in Business/Economics from the University of California at Santa Barbara, and a Master of Business Administration from the University of California at Berkeley.

Ohio Hispanic Legislative Day 2014

“Hispanics in Ohio, an Emerging Engine for the Future”

Presenters

David Wolfe Leopold is the founder and principal of DAVID WOLFE LEOPOLD & ASSOCIATES Co. LPA. His diverse immigration, visa, and citizenship practice includes the representation of major health care institutions and teaching hospitals, individual clinical and research physicians and residents, and other health care professionals; employer sanctions defense; deportation defense and federal immigration litigation. Mr. Leopold is the past president of the Washington, D.C.-based American Immigration Lawyers Association (AILA www.aila.org), the premier bar association of immigration lawyers and professors in the U.S. He has served as AILA’s top liaison to the Department of Homeland Security’s key enforcement bureaus and co-founded the American Immigration Council’s Litigation Institute, a hands-on continuing legal education program focused on federal immigration litigation.

Thomas J. Wahlrab is the former Executive Director of the City of Dayton (Ohio) Human Relations Council and the Dayton Mediation Center. Mr. Wahlrab is one of the principal facilitators of the community conversation that resulted in the Welcome Dayton Plan. He supported the process that resulted in the City of Dayton’s Second Generation Disparity Study and subsequent Procurement Enhancement Plan Ordinance and Policy. He has thirty years working in government and private sector environments involving affirmative action, contract compliance, civil rights, mediation and conflict management, community building, civic engagement and workplace team systems development. He received his BA from Central State University, Wilberforce, Ohio and a MS Ed. from the University of Dayton.